CONTROL OF CHASE MONEY

COURT BY PLAINTIFF.

Charges Made in Regard to the Rents and Profits-Old Man Cheers-News of the Courts.

The first and second petitions of the plaintiff in the case of Frederick S. Chase against Charles Duhme and Ophelia Duhme were filed in the Federal Court yesterday. They involve the dealings of the Duhmes in the acquirement of the property of Moses Fowler Chase. The petitions state that young Chase was declared insane before he left the sanitorium at Flint, Mich., and that after that time the Duhmes, through false representation, usurped the property of Chase and the use of his rents and profits to the amount of $20,000. It is also stated that since that time, which was in 1898, the Duhmes have falled to pay the rents on the property, and are now withholding all the rents and profits arising from the land and the property on them. The bills ask that the Duhmes be enjoined from asserting any right to have or receive the rents and incomes and also from interfering in the management and control of the property.

OLD MAN CHEERED.

Joseph Hambright Was Tickled When He Heard the Verdict.

The old man believed his the two came to Indianapolis and Hambright gave Lawson $2 to get the horse. Lawson started to get the stolen horse, leaving the old man standing on the corner while he pretended to go to the livery barn. After waiting about half a day for Lawson to return the old man concluded that he had been fooled and complained to the police. He would have been there waiting still, for Lawson never returned. Lawson has been before Judge Alford before.

Opal Pursell's Suit.

In the Superior Court yesterday Opal Pursell filed a petition for divorce against Arthur T. Pursell. The filing of the divorce suit recalls the sensational elopement at the time they were married.

In her complaint she alleges cruel and Inhur an treatment, infidelity and failure the State of Indiana, hereby certify that to provide. Says Wife Has Another Husband.

In his complaint filed yesterday in the Superior Court William Woehrman says that his wife, Minnie Woehrman, has another husband and asks that the marriage be annulled. It is set out that Woehrman was married to Minnie in Philadelphia Feb. 12, 1902, and he presumed at the time that she was free from all alliances. Shortly after they were married he discovered that she was already married, the complaint says. When Woehrman found out the facts he left his new wife and has never since lived with her.

Robert Turner Fined.

Robert Turner, colored, who was arrested several days ago for carrying concealed weapons, was fined $25 and costs by Judge Whallon in Police Court yesterday morn-

Turner was arrested by Park Policeman O'Rellly, of Riverside Park, for walking through the park holding a revolver in his hands and ordering all pedestrians out of the path of himself and the young woman who was in his company. He caused considerable excitement, and was arrested after he had boarded a car for the city.

INDIANAPOLIS & SOUTHWESTERN IN-CREASES CAPITAL STOCK.

It Is Announced that a Line Will tend from Here to Evansville-New Incorporations.

The Indianapolis & Southwestern Traction Company (formerly the Indianapolis, Martinsville & Southern Railroad Company) yesterday took the first steps toward the building and equipment of the longest electric interurban raffroad in Indiana, it is said by prominent members of the company. Articles showing an increase in capital stock from $50,000 to $900,000-$600,000 common and $300,000 6 per cent. preferred-were filed with the Secretary of State. The articles also give notice of the change in name and the enlarged scope of the company. Large amounts of foreign capital have been interested in the company and the line will be built to Evansville, through Martinsville and Vincennes, When company first organized all the capital interested was local and the purpose was to build only to Martinsville. Under the new organization Evansville will be the southern terminus, with this city the northern." It was given out by a prominent member of the company last night that all the capital had been subscribed. The line to Martinsville will be completed and in operation by Jan. 1, 1905, it was Mayme MacLaren, of Indianapolis. announced. The capitalization will then be increased to a large enough figure-perhaps $2,000,000 or $3,000,000, it is said-to extend the ine on to Evansville. The route to Evansvale has not yet been surveyed entirely. and it cannot be told just how long the road will be when completed, but that it will be the longest electric line in the State, the promoters of the project say there is no doubt. The articles filed with Secretary of State are signed by Albert W. Moore, secretary of the company.

Including the Indianapolis & Southwestern's increase of $850,000 the companies incorporated yesterday have an aggregate capitalization of $1.790,000. The incorporation fees paid to the Secretary of State from these concerns amounted to a little more than $1,700. This week has been one of the largest during the present year in the way of incorporation fees. Including the business to-day and to-morrow the fees will amount to something like $4,000 for the, week, it is thought.

"Justice is be apparent to all that there is room for the constant desire and effort to render improvement in the methods for increasing every man his due," said Justinian; and the intellectual and moral digestion and assimilation of the truths which enter into our mental and spiritual fibre. The wide reading of condensed historical fact touching human experience and more concrete teaching of the gospels of Jesus Christ for both intellectual and moral training will help. As respects the genuine millions of pure life and character found in the church statistics show concludively that 90 per cent, has come through the Sunday school and church nursery of the young, just as the faithful teachers in our public schools are sending the thousands through to higher and stronger intellectual training. But of a professedly Christian paper, to de- finally, let us not forget that it is what we nounce them as false, and to demand the digest and assimilate that makes us strong evidence? And, also, to publish it fairly, in mind and character and not that with which we gorge and cram. Indianapolis, July 15.

The Tyfold Collar

The picture shows how the collar is cut out on each side to allow for adjusting a neck tie without springing the collar open. The collar comes close together in front, it keeps the tie in place and you don't see the cut-out part. Besides the tie is retained just over the button, which is also kept out of sight.
